PREREQUISITES:
CONCENTRATION AREA: GROWTH, FLUCTUATION AND ECONOMIC PLANNING
STUDY PLAN This is the first of two courses on household economics. In this first course, we emphasize the decision-making process of families with more than one decision maker and its consequences for the intra- and inter-family distribution of resources.
GOALS The aim of the course is to introduce students to the most recent and relevant articles in the field, enabling them to present their own research projects in the field.
